SOCIAL-MEDIA VOLUNTEER

Experience Camps (www.experiencecamps.org) is a nonprofit that champions the nation's 5.3 million bereaved children and runs a network of no-cost camps that help grieving children thrive. You'll help generate engaging content that raises awareness on childhood grief, which impacts millions of kids. While the topic is heavy, our work involves helping these kids rediscover joy and build resilience.

Expectations

- Help generate engaging content with guidance from our Sr. Communications Manager on IG (stories & posts), LinkedIn, FB, and Twitter.
- Meet once a week with our Sr. Communications Manager to brainstorm & get feedback
- Connect with partners/influencers on various platforms by tagging/commenting
- This remote position is 5 to 7 hours a week (we can discuss) starting as soon as possible until the end of June (can potentially be extended).

We are looking for someone who is

Experienced in creating and posting content on social-media platforms beyond your own; good at writing with personality; reliable; and has a sense of humor.

What you will get from us

Gratitude; professional experience on platforms that reach thousands; flexible hours; a good job reference (if all goes well) and the joy of doing good in the world.

To apply

1) Peruse our social-media (go to experiencecamps.org and scroll down to the bottom of the page for links to all of them).
2) Send your resume plus 3 examples of social-media posts you would write for us (we won't use) based on our style to michelle@experiencecamps.org.
3) If it seems like a good fit, we will ask to interview you for 30 minutes.
